

C. Fest

1. NEXUS:

Nexus, the vibrant national fest organized by the Department of History, is both an academic and cultural extravaganza designed to engage young minds creatively and intellectually. Open to all undergraduate and pre-university students, the fest provides a lively platform to showcase knowledge, talent, and teamwork. Participants can actively engage in seminars, paper presentations, debates, quizzes, treasure hunts, and street plays, creating a dynamic blend of learning and fun. Nexus aims to foster critical thinking, communication, and collaboration while celebrating cultural diversity and academic excellence. It promises a memorable experience filled with enthusiasm, innovation, and meaningful interactions.
