38 species of birds sighted from SAC campus during Campus Bird Count

Campus bird count (CBC) is a sub-event of the larger 'Great Backyard Bird Count' (GBBC), organized by Bird Count India in collaboration with eBIRD every year since 2015. This is an effort to document the bird life in various campuses across India. This year over 250 campus took part in this mega birding event.

St Aloysius College, a 138 year old campus is situated at the center of Mangaluru city and is spread over 37 acres. The campus took part in this event for the first time. The event was organized by Department of Zoology. The campus bird count team was led by Mr. Vineeth Kumar K., Assistant professor, Department of Zoology in active presence of Mr. Kiran Vati, Lecturer, Department of Zoology and Dr. Hemachandra, HOD, Department of Zoology. Total of 41 students from various UG Science and Arts departments of the college actively participated in the bird count.

Four days (15th to 18th February) of birding event concluded with recording of 38 species of birds. The common most birds of the campus included Black kite, Brahminy kite, Feral pigeons, Rosy starlings, Chestnut-tailed starlings, Asian Koels and White cheeked barbet. Total of 8 migratory bird species were reported from this campus which includes Blyth's reed warbler, Indian paradise flycatcher, Green warbler, Greenish warbler, Brown breasted flycatcher, Blue capped rock-thrush, Blue-tailed bee-eater and Ashy Drongo. Sighting of Blue capped rock thrush is a rare and unusual for this part of the coast. The campus being in the midst of a crowded coastal city is home to several bird species, which is a rare and interesting observation. This emphasizes the importance of green patches in an urbanized area. Campus has several small green patches with large woody trees which act as sheltering grounds, additionally there are many flowering and fruiting plants in the campus which attracts many birds as they provide food to these birds. There are hundreds of Black kites seen perched on top of various buildings in the campus. Barn owls are seen resting in the old administrative building. Calls of Asian Koels and White-cheeked barbets can be heard throughout the day. Flocks of hundreds of Rosy and Chestnut tailed starlings flying around the campus is a blissful sight to cherish.

Such bird counts done for several years will give an understanding of how the bird populations are changing with time. Bird-watching is a best way to spend our leisure time and anyone can practice this hobby irrespective of their age, occupation and place. Watching birds can bring joy to our minds and be a good stress reliever. With continuous practice, bird watching becomes integral part of a birdwatchers life.

Star Student Awards

Star Student awards ceremony was organized by St Aloysius College (Autonomous) on 21/02/2019. This ceremony celebrates success and achievements of Biological Science students who have excelled in academics.

Star College Scheme is sponsored by Department of Biotechnology, Ministry of Science in order to support colleges and University Departments offering Undergraduate courses to improve Science teaching. The program emphasizes on curriculum improvement and practical training for students. So far 88 colleges have been supported under scheme and St Aloysius College (Autonomous) is one among them. A lot of activities such as projects, seminars, workshops, hands on training programs and interdisciplinary activities have been conducted by the college under this scheme.

Through the Star College Scheme, students are provided an opportunity to experience hands on training in complex concepts of various fields of science. The various departments of biological sciences have been able to promote and conduct various research projects and national seminars. Due to the support of the scheme, students are provided access to various facilities like skills in practical training and sophisticated laboratory equipment. A large number of reading material in the form of laboratory manuals, innovative practicals conducted by participating colleges have been generated which have been evaluated by two expert committees and information is being compiled in uniform format for use by all. This small investment made by DBT has paid huge dividends and has led to attracting and retaining students to pursue science courses.

On the occasion of felicitating the students who have excelled in academics, Padmabhushan Dr. B.M. Hegde was present as the chief guest. Rev Fr. Dr. Praveen Martis SJ, Principal of St Aloysius College (Autonomous) and Dr Ronald Nazareth, Co-ordinator of Star College Scheme, Dr. John D'Silva Director of Xavier block, Ms Precilla D'Silva, Dean of Biological Sciences and Ms Karen D'Souza, Convener of the program were among the dignitaries.

Padmabhushan Dr. B.M. Hegde inspired the students to keep away negative thoughts and nurture the positive aspects of life. He spoke of the importance of having a clean mind and how much can be achieved with believing in oneself. He emphasized the need for students to be constantly encouraged and appreciated so they can reach higher levels of success. Teachers are guides who mustn't be afraid to admit to not knowing the answers to questions sometimes, which serves as a positive to the students to whom understanding and learning seems lighter and easier. Students put in a lot of efforts to reach where they are, and they must compete with no one else but themselves. Comparison amongst students creates a negative atmosphere fueled by jealousy, ego and self depreciation which is not welcome and hinders their development. He highlighted the necessity of having a healthy and sound mind, and thus a healthy body would follow. The students who have excelled in academics from various courses of biological sciences from B.Sc and M.Sc were felicitated by Dr. Hegde. Student achievers who presented papers in international level conferences and those who have acquired scholarships were also awarded.

Rev Dr. Praveen Martis SJ presided over the program. He echoed the words of Dr. Hegde, encouraging the students to put their heart and soul into what they pursue. He expressed his joy and gratitude over the success of the program and inspired the students to reach for more, to think more, and to question more. He spoke of the importance of hard work and wholeheartedly congratulated the students who won.

Prof Valsan Peelikodu spoke about his view points on Malayalam culture and its gradual change from his time until now. He also gave a wonderful definition of culture and tradition of Malayalam.

Addressing the audience, Dr Alwyn D’Sa said, “Being among all you Malayalees here, I feel like a celebrity hailing from a different community. I have always appreciated the qualities and characters of the Malayalees, and today on this auspicious occasion I got the chance to express my thoughts about you all. You are all like the God sent people living in the God’s own Country”.

“Yes, Malayalees are hard working people, who are not satisfied with ordinary things, they are always looking forward to emerge into better things and be on the top, by reaching greater heights. Malayalees look for the best institutions to pursue their academic career, and you have done the right choice by joining this institution, which provides you the best education, best facilities, knowledgeable faculty and good values. No doubt you are the real people of India who can take our nation to greater heights” added Dr D’Sa.

Dr Sajimon, spoke in Malayalam language, narrating about the Malayalam culture and tradition.

The vote of thanks was proposed by Nibin Manuel, and Miss Nikita George compered the programme. Students performed a traditional Kerala dance, Prof Valsan Peelikodu took over the session to deliver keynote address on the topic “Samskaravavum Sahithyavum”.

Moral Passion defines Intelligentsia: Dr Thampu

St Aloysius College (Autonomous) hosted a public lecture on 'Society and the Intelligentsia' by Rev. Dr Valsan Thampu, former principal of St Stephen's College, Delhi University on Friday, 15 February 2019 at the L F Rasquinha Hall. The dignitaries included Rev. Fr Dionysius Vas SJ, Rector of St Aloysius Institutions and president of the program, Rev. Dr Praveen Martins SJ, Principal of St Aloysius College, Dr A M Narahari, Registrar of the college and convener of the event Dr Alwyn D'Sa, Director of the Administrative Block. The lecture was organised as an attempt to initiate a dialogue on the position of intellectuals in society today, and the way forward.

"The intelligentsia has the painful responsibility of serving as an outsider," said Dr Thampu. Stressing on the importance of developing a perspective lest we end up as slaves of time, he insisted that the intelligentsia be a voice in the wilderness, backed by Truth.

The former principal of St Stephen's College minced no words in his pertinent critique of the position of intellectuals today. "Today's age is inhospitable to dialogue. The academia today exists hermetically sealed off from social reality," he stated. "The disappearance of the intelligentsia today is directly connected to the disappearance of education. Out of an institution, the river of life must flow. The institution must thus be the source of social regeneration, and must exert a positive, humane, regenerative influence - it must kindle life," he noted.

He hailed the college for being sensitive to the public. "Unless a society produces its own intelligentsia, it is doomed to destruction. St Aloysius College is the ideal breeding ground for the sleeping, dormant intelligentsia," he remarked.

The event saw students from around the city and members of the public interact with Dr Thampu after an insightful session. Answering the questions of the audience, he expressed that free speech is a sign of intellectual development. "Your dignity is incomparable to your predicament as a parasite," he said to a thunderous applause.

Rev. Dr Praveen Martis SJ, Principal of the college, advised the students to seek wisdom, as knowledge without love is just knowledge, whereas knowledge with love is wisdom.

Rev. Fr Dionysius Vas SJ, in his presidential address, remarked that the college stands for humanism, an adventure of ideas and the search for truth.

Overall, the public lecture was immensely successful in initiating a conversation amongst the youth of the city to be "committed to life and truth," as Dr Thampu aptly put it.

Promoting Chemistry to Undergrads

The Department of Chemistry through the Alchemy association under the guidance of Dr Divya N Shetty had organised a 3 day program for final year degree students of our college pursuing their degree program with chemistry as one subject. The goal of this activity was to ignite interest towards the subject of chemistry in the students. Dr Ronald Nazareth, Head of the Department of PG Studies and Research in Chemistry introduced the simplicity in chemistry, a talk which was a two way interaction along with an activity which enraptured everyone into the topic. Following the talk the ex-students of the department of PG chemistry shared their wonderful experiences. This was followed by the students currently pursuing master's degree in the department of chemistry bearing witness to their stay in the department. An introduction of the department was done in the form of a power point presentation showing the various aspects of the department -from the department faculty to the various instruments in the labs and also the activities conducted and programmes hosted by the department.

The members of the alchemy association engaged the degree students with games. The students participated enthusiastically resulting in a positive feedback towards the end of the program. This was no doubt a fruitful endeavour pursued by the department of PG chemistry towards spreading the word of chemistry and in the process generating love for the subject.

"MUKTHI" - A School based awareness and sensitization programme for teenage students on 'Drug abuse and prevention' was conducted by PG Department of Social Work, St Aloysius College (Autonomous), Mangaluru, for

- Std VIII and Std IX students of Sri Ramashrama High School, Konchady on 26th February at 10.00am. Around 45 students participated actively in the programme.
- Std IX 'A' and Std IX 'B' students of St Lawrence High School, Bondel on 28th February at 10.00 am. Around 100 students participated actively in the programme.
- Std VIII 'A' and Std VIII 'B' students of St Lawrence High School, Bondel on 28th February at 11.00am. Around 100 students participated actively in the programme.
- Std VIII and Std IX students of St Raymond's High School, Vamanjoor on 28th February at 01.30 pm. Around 70 students participated actively in the programme.

Methodology Adopted:

- Introduction
- Short Video Clip on drug abuse and its effects
- Interactive lecture on Why teenagers take drugs, Types of drugs commonly used, Physical and Psychological effects of drug abuse and treatment, how to deal with situations that compel young people to take to drugs and say 'NO' to drugs.
- Activity
- To arrange the given alphabets as a slogan 'SAY NO TO DRUGS' and explain.
- To arrange the given Puzzle and to explain the slogan 'QUIT SMOKING', 'QUIT DRUGS', 'QUIT TOBACCO', 'QUIT DRINKS'.

Evaluation:

Drug abuse is a complex problem thought to be result from a combination of psychological and environmental factors. It is essential to create awareness among the adolescence about drug use which was done through the program conducted where it was observed that most of the teenagers were aware about the different types of drugs which are available easily like Beedi, Cigarettes, Tobacco and also the local names Gutka, brown sugar. It was also observed that most of the teenagers were unaware about the consequences and the effects on health due to drugs and the treatments available for drug addiction. The awareness program has helped the young adolescence to be aware about the effects of drugs on an individual and updating the student's knowledge about drugs and its preventions, different treatments like the de-addiction centers and the ways they can use their time by getting engaged in different activities like sports, reading Novels, story books, yoga, meditation, etc which can help the adolescence in avoiding the usage of drugs. The students were very interactive and also active during the activities conducted for them. All the students were seen cooperative and attentive.

Sanjeevini 2019

The Post Graduate Department of Management of St. Aloysius College (Autonomous) AIMIT, Beerli, hosted 'Sanjeevini'- a Voluntary Blood Donation Camp in collaboration with Wenlock Hospital, Mangalore on Wednesday, February 20th, 2019. The program commenced by invoking the blessings of the Almighty and was followed by a short video presentation highlighting the dire need for blood donation, given the staggering accident cases in our country and the world over. The event was inaugurated by the young and dynamic Dr. Durga Prasad, Administrative Medical Officer at Ladygoshen, Mangalore. In his message, he highlighted the need for donating blood and informed the student community of the many Myths that shroud blood donation. He also educated the gathering on the Do's and Don'ts while donating blood. He emphasized the need for a healthy living by taking adequate precautions in diet and devoting sufficient time for exercise. He stated that the blood is well screened before being passed on to the patients and the transmission of diseases via blood transfusion has been reduced drastically.

He concluded by saying that we make a living by what we get but we make a life by what we give. Rev. Fr. Denzil Lobo S J Director, AIMIT, in his presidential address reiterated the need for donating blood. He stated that blood saves many human lives irrespective of caste, creed, colour, or race. He urged the youth to come forward in large numbers and be a part of this noble cause. Mr. Lestan Dsouza – Faculty Coordinator Sanjeevini 2019 welcomed the dignitaries and introduced the chief guest. The Student Coordinator of Sanjeevini 2019, Mr Arjun Wilson proposed the Vote of thanks. Ms Reeshel compered the event.

The day witnessed a large turnout of eager donors and more than 130 units of blood were donated. The expertise of the doctors and nurses of Wenlock under the watchful eye of Mr Edward Vas was highly commendable.

Sanjeevini which commenced in the year 2006, has been a success till date. The aim of this camp is to inculcate community work and social responsibility among students. Blood Donation is a gentle reminder that one need not have to be a doctor to save lives. A mime directed by the I MBA Student Mr. Mahesh was staged in the college premises on 18th February, 2019 to create awareness about the Camp.

Aloysian Literature Festival (ALF)

The inauguration of the first edition of Aloysian Literature Festival (ALF) was held on 9 February 2019 in the Robert Sequeira Hall, LCRI Block. ALF is organized by the Department of Postgraduate Studies and Research in English, St Aloysius College (Autonomous), Mangaluru. This year's festival was envisaged with a clear thematic concern that is conservation of ecology. The inauguration began with an audio/ video representation showcasing the importance of preserving the habitats of indigenous Warli people. The Principal Rev. Dr Praveen Martis, SJ inaugurated the programme. Rev Dr Dionysius Vaz SJ, Rector of St Aloysius Institutions, presided over.

The Principal Rev. Dr Praveen Martis, SJ in his speech congratulated the organizers for taking initiative to organize such an innovative programme. India is a country of biodiversity. The Warlie Tribe (Adivasi) are the indigenous people who needs the support. They lose their art and culture due to diversity. We must preserve the art and culture of such community through educating people by organizing such programmes so that the younger generation can spread awareness to preserve the rich art and culture of our country. He wished the organizers as well as participants.

Rev Dr Dionysius Vaz in his presidential remark congratulated the department for organizing such a meaningful programme. He said that, due to the unplanned and the shortsighted economic growth, ecological diversity and the poor will suffer a lot. He quoted that when we are closer to nature, we are close to God. Hence, preserve the nature, culture and art which is the real wealth of our country.

During the festival, the following programmes were organized. 1) Two-day Workshop in Film Appreciation on 9 and 10 February offered by Sri. Abhaya Simha, Director, Screen Writer and the winner of National Award for two of his films.

2) Two-day National Seminar on "Ecology and Literature" on 11 and 12 February (Resource persons from Central Universities, IIT and IISC)

3. Three day Workshop in "Playing the World: Intuition, Enquiry, Insight (A Workshop in Cultural Studies and Critical Thinking through Theatre and Arts Appreciation) from 13 to 15 February offered by Shri Raghunadana.

4. One day Workshop in Creating Editorial Cartoons offered by Satish Archarya on 16 February.

Registrar Dr A.M. Narahari, Convener of ALF, Girish N, HOD of PG Studies and Research in English Dr Melissa Goveas, Student Coordinator, Mishelle D'Souza, were present on the dais.

Girish N welcomed the gathering. Bhavya, II MA compered the programme. Dr. Melissa Goveas proposed the vote of thanks.

Tulu Parba

The Tulu koota of St Aloysius College (Autonomous) in association with Karnataka Tulu Sahitya Academy organized a one-day State Level Tulu Cultural Fest 'Tulu Parba' on February 18, 2019 at LCRI Hall. Sri A.C. Bhandary, President of Karnataka Tulu Sahitya Academy inaugurated the programme. Sri Harikrishna Punaroor, Former President of Kannada Sahitya Parishad was the Chief Guest. Cine Actor, Sri Bhojaraj Vamanjoor was the Guest of honour. Ku. Chitralli, Drama Junior Winner was the special invitee. Rev Dr Praveen Martis SJ presided over the programme. Presidents of Tulu Koota, Ms Suraksha Karkera and Ms Rashmi Amin and KTSA member, Ms Durga Menon were present on the dais.

The Chief Guest of the occasion, Sri A C Bhandary congratulated the Tulu Koota Members for their innovative programme for the promotion of Tulu Language and culture. He expressed his desire that all colleges and educational institutions foster and promote Tulu Culture. Tulu language has to be offered as a language in schools and colleges. He said that it was sad that Tulu culture has not received its deserved status so far. Hence promotion of Tulu as a language would mean raising the status of Tulu Culture. This requires many programmes in schools and colleges to make students aware of the richness of our culture. He advised students to develop the habit of reading Tulu books and promote its development. Rev. Dr Praveen Martis, SJ, the Principal of the College and the President of the event congratulated the students for organizing the innovative and unique Tulu Parba to promote Tulu Culture. He wished that several new and innovative initiatives would be organized in the coming days.

Sri Bhojaraja Vamanjoor, another guest shared his interesting story of getting attracted to theatre and entering the field of acting. He advised the students to love all cultures and languages without any discrimination and promote them to the best of their capacity.

Sri Harikrishna Punarooru, applauded the efforts of the Tulu Sahitya Academy in promoting Tulu Language and Culture. He exhorted students to constantly work hard for popularizing Tulu language and culture.

During the programme, Bhojaraj Vamanjoor and Chitralli were felicitated.

Ms Rashmi Amin welcomed the gathering. Ms Chaitra compered the programme and Ms Durga Menon proposed the vote of thanks.
