SCHOOL OF LAW

The School of Law at St Aloysius (Deemed to be University) in Mangaluru exemplifies the Jesuit culture of holistic education, led by its motto Lucet et Ardet—"Shine to Enkindle." Established in 1880, the university has a long history of promoting academic excellence and social responsibility. It offers a comprehensive legal education that incorporates multidisciplinary studies with an emphasis on constitutional values and human rights. The program aims to provide students with the knowledge and abilities required to address contemporary legal issues and serve as agents of social change.

The School of Law focuses on critical thinking, ethical practice, and social justice, preparing students to be compassionate legal professionals. Through challenging academics, experiential learning, and community participation, it develops individuals who illuminate society with knowledge and spark change with purpose. Join us to become a symbol of justice and service in the legal world.

PROGRAMME OFFERED:

1. LLB (Hons)

This 3-year program is a professional degree intended for aspirants who want to work in law. The program emphasizes experiential learning through moot courts, internships, and legal clinics while integrating fundamental legal subjects with interdisciplinary studies. Students who complete this degree will have the advocacy, analytical, and critical thinking abilities necessary for the legal field. Graduates are equipped for a variety of professions, such as academics, business law, litigation, and public service.

Eligibility: Any degree from UGC recognised Universities with 45% marks.

2. BBA LLB (Hons)

This 5-year program integrates business administration and legal education. Core legal courses, business fundamentals, and specialised electives are all part of this program, which aims to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of both law and management principles. This program emphasises experiential learning and uses clinical courses, internships, and moot courts to build practical skills. Graduates are equipped for a variety of professions in public service, business law, legal consulting, and the judiciary.

Eligibility: 12 standard/PUC in any stream with 45% marks.
