

ST ALOYSIUS COLLEGE (AUTONOMOUS), MANGALURU, KARNATAKA

Photos of Rural Immersion program

2016

Interaction in school in Mundugod

Mungod Visit-Interaction with people learning about medicinal plants

Students conducting games in school

Interaction with students

Students interacting with school children

Conducting activities

Outdoor games competition

2017

PG department of Social Work on Students visited the houses in Mundgod and had interaction with the members of the house. Through home visit they found out the problems and needs of the village people on 2017

Students visiting villages home and interacting

Awareness program and session in life skills was organised for forty-five minutes and it went well with the good co-operation of both the children and teachers

Awareness Programmes were organized in the villages on the need of immunizing children at specific ages, the negative aspects of alcoholism, and the need of a nutritious diet that is to be included in their food patterns

Students conducted a survey on the nutritional status of the women of the village. It was observed that though few of the women were undernourished, they had built resistance against diseases

Students of FST giving talk on importance of consuming all kinds of fruits and vegetables

School children of Singanahalli were educated on hygiene practices such as correct method of washing hands and hygiene during sickness.

Mathematics Tuition classes were held Students taught basic mathematics using the materials and charts which were very effective in nature

MA English department On November 21, i.e. on the final day in the village the students also performed consciousness-raising dramas for the villagers to create awareness about the education of the girl child.

Conducting survey

2018

The students of MSW department organized ‘SWARAKSHA – Education on Child Sexual Abuse’ for the school children where the children were given awareness regarding bad touch and good touch and a brief information on POCSO ACT 2012(Protection of Children from Social Offences).

Public programmes were conducted on Child Marriage, HIV/AIDS and Community hygiene were organized in villages. Street plays and role plays were performed by students in rouser to reach the Public

PG chemistry department Students gave all information regarding the disease and explained how life style and hygiene is directly related to different types of diseases. They conducted rally on creating awareness was conducted in association with Loyola Vikas Kendra

Each school or baalvadi was visited and the students tried to learn about the governmental education system By the PG department of Chemistry

Street plays, songs and other art forms in order to create awareness on HIV-AIDS and hygiene were performed By the PG department of Chemistry

Aloysians in Shirigod village of Hungal conducted cleanliness drive. They along with villagers cleaned roads and created awareness on how cleanliness leads to godliness.

Percentage of population affected by various diseases.

MAJOR DIET OF HANGAL VILLAGE

source	Frequency of uses
Rice	★★★★★

Maize	★★★★★
Wheat	★☆☆☆☆
Ragi	★☆☆☆☆
Pulses	★★★☆☆
Fruits	★☆☆☆☆
Vegetables	★★★★★
Green leafy vegetables	★☆☆☆☆
Chicken	★★★★★
Lamb	★★★☆☆
Egg	★☆☆☆☆
Milk	☆☆☆☆☆
Pork	☆☆☆☆☆
Fish	★★★☆☆
Nuts	★☆☆☆☆

M.Sc Biochemistry surveyed five villages to find out the incidence of life-style and other diseases and get information on the diet of the people residing in these villages

Students also conducted various indoor and outdoor games and activities to convey messages on social issues by Physics Department

The students organized AIDS awareness programs for the villagers along with street plays and the distribution of Pamphlets on the same. The students also conducted a rally in the Mundgod town with announcements, slogans, and placards to give awareness on AIDS

The students also offered classes for the students in the village hostels run by LVK on the basics of English and the spoken English

2019

Street play regarding HIV awareness

Visit to baalvadi, primary and high schools

Field visit, study on struggles faced by farmers

Organic farming, Shashimala

Tribal colony in Niravilpussha Students involved in preparation of Tapioca curry in traditional method

Center of Conservation of Medicinal Plants and Biodiversity

Villagers performing cultural dance

Remarks