

Report

As part of the world food day celebration, the Department of PG and UG Food science in association with Entrepreneurship and Consultancy cell organised a national seminar on 30th October at L F Rasquinah hall.

The theme of the seminar was "feeding the future: exploring innovations in food security".

Dr.(Hons) .Basaiah Hiremath, founder - director of NOFH, Pvt Ltd was the chief guest for the programme. The guest speakers were Dr. Anilkumar H.S , associate professor, NMAM institute of technology and Dr. R. Pandiselvam, scientist , Central Plantation Crop Research Institute, Kasargod

The seminar provided insights on the resilient agricultural practices and advanced innovations in ensuring food security.

A total of 200+ students participated in the seminar

