

Human Rights Karnataka team to visit Kerala

NIMMY AND SNEHA

MANGALURU:The Human Rights Committee Karnataka Team (HRCKT) will visit Chalakudi, Kerala, to distribute relief materials to the victims affected by the recent floods.

According to the press release issued by HRCKT here on Friday, there was a positive response for the 'Rebuild Kerala, Rebuild Kodagu relief material collection campaign' held on September 8 and 9.

Materials including rice, clothes, sanitary pads, footwear, cleaning brushes, brooms, tablets, biscuits, among others were donated.

An amount of rupees forty thousand was collected as funds from which further relief materials would be purchased

Marathon to help flood victims

RESHMA AND VAISHALI

MANGALURU: The department of business administration of St Joseph Engineering College (SJEC) is organising a marathon run on September 23, 2018 at 6 a.m. The marathon will begin from Mangala stadium to SJEC. The motive behind organising this is to help the flood victims of Kodagu and Kerala.

The run is open for anyone above the age of 14 years. The winners (both men and women) will get a cash prize of Rs 10,000 as I prize and Rs 6000 as II prize. Interested people can register themselves by paying Rs 200 as registration amount.

"The first 200 finishers will be awarded with finishers' medals. The amount from registration will be used as donation for rehabilitation in Kerala and Kodagu," said Rohan Pai, student coordinator.

JCI holds anti-narcotic drive at Forum Fiza Mall

DAJIWORLD

MANGALURU: To create awareness on drug abuse, Junior Chamber International (JCI), Mangaluru unit organized an Anti-Narcotic Drive programme in association with Lions Club, Mangaluru,

Facebook

HRCKT at the Press Club

to be distributed to the needy, the release said.

The HRCKT under the leadership of state president Jojo K Joseph and Dakshina Kananda district president Anwar Hussain and team has decided in its committee meeting held on September 13 to leave to Kerala on Saturday, 8 p.m. to a village in Chalakudi, where families are deprived of basic necessities. The team will then proceed to Kodagu in a week's time after visiting Kerala.

Roshni Nilaya to organise 'Expressions'

NIMMY AND SNEHA

MANGALURU:The School of Social Work (SSW), Roshni Nilaya, Mangalore, is organising an inter-collegiate fest 'Expressions', on Saturday, September 15.

The theme of this UG level fest 'Humanité', aims at 'breaking differences'. RD Raina, college president stated "Over 25 colleges have been invited and nearly 15 colleges have confirmed their arrival." Captain Brijesh Chowta, an ex-serviceman, and academician will inaugurate the fest at 9 a.m., in the college auditorium. Juliet CJ, Principal, SSW, will preside over the function. The fest will include a number of individual and team events.

The chief guests for the valedictory are Vipul Kumar, Director, Karnataka Police Academy, Mysuru and coastal-wood actor Manju Rai.

Yenepoya Medical College and Project Angels Dust at Forum Fiza Mall on Thursday, September 14.

Vijay Vishnu Mayya, president, Lions Club, Mangaluru, Dr Ashwini Shetty, assistant professor of Yenepoya Medical College, Dr Shrikumar, ex bu-

Unique 'Dhaanya Ganesh' attracts many devotees in Udupi

DAJIWORLD

UDUPI:As in the previous years, environment-friendly 'Dhaanya Ganesh' (grains Ganesh) idol was installed at Sai Radha Motors TVS showroom here on Wednesday September 12.

Owner of Sai Radha Developers, Manohar Shetty, has been getting environment-friendly idol of Lord Ganesh made by artists every year.

This practice has been going on for the last four years on the occasion of Ganesh Chaturthi, keeping the same for public viewing in the show room.

These idols are made of environment-friendly materials.

The fifth anniversary of this tradition was celebrated on Wednesday. With the installation of this unique idol of Lord Ganapathi, this has become a place of attraction for the people of the city.

This year, 'Dhaanya Ganapathi' created by artistes, Srinath

Manipal and Ravi Hirebettu, has emerged as a beautiful creation backed by divinity which was loved by the public.

cups, biscuits, craft paper, and leaves.

The artists took about ten days to make this 'Dhaanya

Daijiworld

Public viewing the 'Dhaanya Ganesh' idol.

Ten kilograms of white flat beans, three kg sesame seeds, cow peas, sago, and gum made by using Maida have been used to make this idol.

The idol is about 12 feet tall. During the last four years, the concern has presented Lord Ganesh idols made of paper Ganesh' and it is on exhibition for ten days at the TVS showroom to the public. There has been tremendous response from the general public.

At public venues, along with the reading of texts and group feasting, athletic and martial arts competitions were held.

Karajagi to address SAC students

RESHMA AND VAISHALI

CAMPUS: Motivational speaker Gururaj Karajagi will address the students of SAC

Google

Gururaj Karajagi

here on Monday.

He will speak on the topic 'how to be successful in life'. Dr Karajagi is the founder and chairman of the Academy for Creative Teaching (ACT), Bengaluru.

"This will be a motivational talk for the students as well as for the teachers.

The talk is open only for Aloysians and we are expecting around 400 students.

His speech will surely touch the heart of students," said Ishwara Bhat of Physics department, who is also the coordinator of the programme.

Dr Bhat added that Dr Karajagi would give live examples of people who have fought against all odds and are living a successful life.

Incidentally, Dr Karajagi is visiting Mangalore on another pretext and the College managed to get him for one hour, Dr Bhat said.

against drug abuse was performed in front of the DC's office by the students.

In his speech, Vijay Vishnu said "We have got one life and we should spend it very carefully. In the meantime, we should think about other's life also."

Police seize 780 tonnes sand stored illegally in private properties

DAJIWORLD

MANGALURU:On definite information of illegally stored sand, police conducted raids on private properties at Valachil, Adyar and Arkula on Thursday, September 13. They called officials of mining and geology to the spot and seized 78 loads of sand weighing 780 tonnes. The approximate cost of seized sand is Rs 5,00,000.

Daijiworld

A police officer at the site.

The sand seized was handed over to the deputy director, department of mining and geology, Mangaluru, for further action.

The operation was conducted by Mangaluru south sub division ACP K Ramarao together with south sub division anti rowdy squad, Mangaluru rural police station inspector and staff.